The right page of the answer sheet contains 15 horizontal musical staves, identical in format to the left page. A solid horizontal line is drawn across the top of the page, just below the header area.
